11.1.2 Introduction to Pavaman Homa:

Pavamana Homam is a complex and intricate Vedic Fire-Ceremony offering Ahutis (Food) to the Hindu deities like Lord Vishnu, Lord Soma or Lord Hanuman chanting Pavamana Sooktam seeking benevolence, great improvements, health, wealth and prosperity.

Pavamanasuktam is a very famous chant from the Vedic tradition. Pavamana Sooktam is found in the Navama Mandala (Ninth Mandala) of Rigveda Samhita that forms a part of Smritis. Pavamana homa finds mention in Taittiriyaopanishat and Bruhadaranyaka. It is a very powerful homa that cures the past errors or sins.

Consisting of 710 Mantras, Pavamana sukta is about praising Sri Vishnu, Sri Pavamana or Sri Vayudevaru (Hanuman) and Sri Somadeva (Chandra). Parayan or Chanting the highly sanctified Pavamana Sooktam is said to yield all our desires (Sarvakaamapradaayini). It is often chanted to help clean/refine energy be it in a place or a person. Many times when entering a new house or space of work, this chant was recited to purify the space of its past energy so that a new positive beginning could be commenced. Pavamana Homam is said to be capable of curing sins accumulated due to four Maha Paatakas.

By conducting Pavamana Homa anyone can get rid of bad elements like spirits and long-term illnesses as per experts. Pavamana Homa can get rid of all the sins or the bad karmas we have accumulated in our life, like we burn up the dry grass in a jiffy.

Pavamana Homa consists of many Pujas and rituals like Ganapati Puja, Shuddha Punyahavaachana invoking Varuna and Vastoshpati, Panchagavyamelana and performing Avahana, Sthapana and Praana-Pratishthapan of Lord Vishnu or Lord Hanuman. Pavamana Sookta Parayana is performed as desired, Tarpans given and Ahutis are offered to Lord Yajneswara. This is followed by Brahman Bhojan (Offering food to the participants and visitors). Pavamana Homam may be performed with different Homa Dravyas for different results. Benefits that may be obtained by performing Pavamana Homam have been explained in the set of Mantras known as Pavamana Khila.
